

Would just like to say that the "No Call List" law should be left as is. Since putting my name on the call list, we have gone to having 10-12 calls per week, down to 0. I am no longer wasting my time answering the phone and hanging up on the telemarketers. This has been one of the best things put into effect for the residents of Indiana.

Thank you,

Amy J. Wright